- Questions per Team: 4
- Marks per Question: 2.5
- Total Marks: 10
- Answer Time: 10 seconds per question
- Mode: Oral quiz, questions asked by the quiz master
- Qualification: No elimination. Scores carry forward to the cumulative total.

Rules and Regulations

1. Each team will be asked 4 questions in total.
2. Each correct answer carries 2.5 marks, for a maximum of 10 marks per team.
3. Teams will have 10 seconds to answer each question. The time starts as soon as the quiz master finishes reading the question.
4. Team members may discuss quietly among themselves within the 10 seconds.
5. Each team must give one final answer per question, spoken by a single team member.
6. If no answer is given within 10 seconds, the question will be marked as unanswered and no marks will be awarded.
7. Mobile phones, calculators, internet searches, AI tools, and external assistance are strictly prohibited.
8. Teams must not communicate with other teams or the audience during the round.
9. The quiz master's decision on whether an answer is correct is final.
10. Any attempt to cheat or violate the rules may result in disqualification.
11. The organizers' decision regarding scoring will be final.

ROUND 2: FACE OFF (GUESS THE PERSONALITY)

Round Format

- Participating Teams: 10
- Members per Team: 4
- Total Photos: 10 (each with a hint)
- Time per Photo: 30 seconds
- Marks per Correct Answer: 1
- Total Marks: 10
- Mode: Photo and hint displayed on screen, answers written on a blank sheet
- Qualification: No elimination. Scores carry forward to the cumulative total.

Rules and Regulations

1. Each team will receive one blank sheet to write the names of the personalities.
2. The organizers will display one photo at a time on the screen, along with a hint for that personality.
3. Each photo and its hint will be displayed on the screen for 30 seconds.
4. Teams must write the name of the personality on the blank sheet, numbered to match the photo.
5. Team members may discuss quietly and solve the questions collaboratively.
6. Only one name may be written per photo. If multiple names are written, the answer will be marked wrong.
7. Each correct name carries 1 mark, for a maximum of 10 marks per team.
8. Mobile phones, calculators, internet searches, AI tools, and external assistance are strictly prohibited.
9. Communication or sharing answers with other teams is not allowed.
10. Once the final photo has been shown, teams must stop writing and submit their sheets immediately.
11. Any attempt to cheat or violate the rules may result in disqualification.
12. The organizers' decision regarding evaluation and scoring will be final.

ROUND 3: SCENE STEALERS (MOVIE SCENE ENACTMENT)

Round Format

- Participating Teams: 10
- Members per Team: 4 (all four must act)
- Total Chits: 10 (each with a movie name)
- Scene Length: 45 seconds to 1 minute
- Preparation Time: 5 minutes
- Scene Viewing: 1 viewing, plus 2 optional viewings on request (maximum 3 in total)
- Total Marks: 10
- Mode: Live enactment, scored by a panel of judges
- Qualification: No elimination. Scores carry forward to the cumulative total.

Rules and Regulations

1. A representative from each team will pick one chit with a movie name from the ten chits. Once picked, the chit cannot be exchanged or returned.
2. The organizers will play a 30-second scene from the movie named on the chit.
3. Each team will be shown the scene once. If they want, they may ask to watch it up to 2 more times, making a maximum of 3 viewings.
4. Each team will have 5 minutes to watch the scene and prepare. All viewings must take place within this preparation time.
5. After the preparation time ends, the team must perform the scene in front of the judges. All four team members must take part, and a team with a member who does not act may lose marks.
6. The enactment should portray the scene they watched.
7. No props, materials, or paper will be provided or allowed. Mobile phones, internet searches, AI tools, and external assistance are strictly prohibited.
8. Teams must not reveal their movie name or scene to other teams.
9. Obscene, offensive, or unsafe acts are not allowed and may lead to marks being deducted. Any attempt to cheat or violate the rules may result in disqualification.

10. The judges will discuss among themselves after each performance and award one common score to the team. The decision of the judges and organizers regarding scoring will be final.

Judging and Winner Selection

- Judges: Professors and lecturers
- Primary Criterion: Overall quality of the enactment, scored out of 10 marks.
- Judging Parameters: Accuracy to the original scene, expressions and acting, creativity, and team coordination (participation of all four members).
- Scoring Method: The judges confer together and give one agreed score per team. There are no separate individual scores and no averaging.
- Maximum Score: 10 marks.
- Elimination: None. All 10 teams continue to the next round.
- Score Carry Forward: Each team's Round 3 score is added to its cumulative total.

ROUND 4: MEME MATCH (GUESS THE MEME)

Round Format

- Participating Teams: 10
- Members per Team: 4
- Total Meme Photos: 10 (one meme photo per team)
- Answer Time: 15 seconds for the team's own meme
- Marks: 10 for answering your own meme, 5 for answering a passed meme
- Mode: Meme photos displayed on screen, teams answer one by one
- Qualification: No elimination. Scores carry forward to the cumulative total.

Rules and Regulations

1. The organizers will display one meme photo at a time on the screen. Each team gets one meme photo of its own, and the photos are shown in team order.
2. The team whose turn it is will have 15 seconds to answer its own meme. Team members may discuss quietly within this time.
3. Each team must give one final answer, spoken by a single team member.

4. If the team answers its own meme correctly, it earns 10 marks and the round moves on to the next team's meme photo.
5. If the team answers incorrectly or does not answer within 15 seconds, it earns 0 marks and the same meme photo stays on the screen and is passed to the next team in order.
6. The first team to answer a passed meme correctly earns 5 marks, and the round then moves on to the next team's own meme photo.
7. A team that has already answered a meme cannot answer it again. If no team answers a passed meme correctly, no marks will be awarded for it.
8. A team may earn marks from its own meme and from any number of passed memes. There is no limit on a team's Round 4 score.
9. Mobile phones, internet searches, AI tools, and external assistance are strictly prohibited. Teams must not communicate with other teams or the audience during the round.
10. Any attempt to cheat or violate the rules may result in disqualification. The organizers' decision regarding scoring will be final.

ROUND 5: REEL RUSH (COLLEGE PROMOTION)

Round Format

- Participating Teams: 10
- Members per Team: 4
- Task: Create an original promotional reel for our college
- Time Limit: 45 minutes (planning, shooting, editing, and uploading)
- Reel Length: Maximum 30 seconds
- Total Marks: 10
- Mode: Reel made by each team and uploaded to a drive provided by the organizers
- Judges: Professors
- Qualification: Final round. Round 5 scores are added to the cumulative total to decide the overall winner.

Rules and Regulations

1. Each team must create one original reel that promotes our college.
2. The reel must not be longer than 30 seconds. Anything beyond 30 seconds will not be evaluated.

3. The time limit is 45 minutes. This covers planning, shooting, editing, and uploading, and no extra time will be provided.
4. All four team members must take part in making the reel.
5. Teams may use their own mobile phones and editing apps to shoot and edit the reel.
6. The reel must be created entirely by the team during the 45 minutes. Pre-recorded videos or previously made reels are not allowed.
7. The reel must be uploaded to the drive provided by the organizers before the 45 minutes end. Late uploads will not be evaluated.
8. Teams must shoot only in authorized campus areas, must not disturb classes or college property, and must follow instructions from volunteers and faculty coordinators.
9. The reel must be respectful and appropriate. Obscene, offensive, or misleading content is not allowed and may lead to marks being deducted. Any attempt to cheat or violate the rules may result in disqualification.
10. The professors will discuss among themselves and award one common score to each team. The decision of the judges and organizers regarding scoring will be final.

CONCLUSION: WINNER SELECTION

All 10 teams will take part in all 5 rounds, and no team will be eliminated. Each round carries 10 marks. After Round 5, the marks from all five rounds will be added together for each team, and the team with the highest total score will be declared the winner.
